Intel Drop #49

The following was collated from a few wide-ranging conversations covering many topics. As always, these conversations are edited by Michael for clarity and for obfuscation purposes (see: Stylometry):

Bill: We've had a lot of conversations the past few weeks, but I felt like we should post this with our most recent talk since so much is happening. I'll just ask you directly, what's your assessment right now of global events?

Gideon: "They are being scripted to prepare people for what is coming."

Bill: How so?

Gideon: "The cabal is using A.I. to script events in real time. News events, political events, it is being scripted, to an extent we cannot fully comprehend. It is causing odd synchronicities and coincidences that some people have begun to notice, as well."

Bill: Can you give an example?

Gideon: "All of my intel indicates the Trump assassination attempt was a fully scripted event, planned and coordinated. People will have trouble understanding what I mean, so I will need to explain it."

Bill: Ok, to me it looked like the cabal, or some faction of the cabal, wanted to remove Trump, is that right? I mean, they wanted to get rid of him, but they failed.

Gideon: "My sources do not believe that. They are calling it a scripted event. It was very convincing, but there are enough clues that should lead everyone to question it."

Bill: Were real shots fired?

Gideon: "As far as I know, possibly, but among my sources, there are serious doubts Trump was struck by a bullet. Doubts to the point almost none of my sources believe he was struck by anything. Whatever stagecraft that was utilized was extremely well-done, but it was nothing more than that.

There are also indications that the cabal is leading people down a path toward believing it was an inside job. This is all out in the open, rather than something relegated to conspiracy circles. This tells us the cabal wants people, or Trump supporters, at least, to believe it was some kind of attempt on Trump's life coming out of the Biden Administration."

Bill: I see, so they're letting people find this information easily, then? It seems like even some members of Congress are exposing it, that it was an inside job.

Gideon: "Correct, but the point here is that they want us to believe this. It is not something we need to dig too deeply in terms of finding the truth, like 9/11, which is something the cabal spent considerable resources covering-up. They are allowing the so-called truth to come out with the assassination attempt, so that is something we need to pay attention to."

Bill: But it's not the truth, is it?

Gideon: "No. The shots, or sounds, that were fired, how the Secret Service responded, how Trump responded with theatrics, and so on, it was all coordinated and planned to happen."

Bill: Ok, I don't want to gloss over this. You're saying this was staged? It was a hoax?

Gideon: "Yes. One that was expertly crafted. If you look closely, there are enough clues."

Bill: What would those be?

Gideon: "The way in which Trump pumped his fist and took a moment to perform theatrics. In that moment, the Secret Service and his protection team completely broke all protocol to allow that, to allow him to expose himself and to be unprotected. This would never happen in a real-world event.

There was also a shooter scare at a Trump event in the past, a few years ago, and if you watch that video, you see how a real situation is handled. Trump was swiftly removed from the room, and there was a real sense of urgency. That was simply a scare, and no shots were even fired.

Here, we have Trump supposedly injured by a real bullet, and how his protection team and how he behaved would be fitting in a Hollywood comedy film."

Bill: I agree, it was really odd, then all of those photos were perfectly taken, took, those iconic shots. It looked like Hollywood to me, but people just passed it off as Trump's theatrics, I guess.

Gideon: "There is video from behind the podium about twenty seconds before the shooting. It shows the Secret Service agents, or more accurately, Trump's protection team, usher a couple of photographers from the back to the front of the stage. Then the shots are fired. This would appear they had knowledge something was about to happen and wanted the photographers in the correct position to take the right photos."

Bill: I've seen that video, and it's clear as day, too, that's exactly what happened. They also had all of the news channels airing it live, like CNN, and they normally don't air the rallies live. They also had that top photographer there, who took a picture of the bullet, he also took the picture of Bush when he was told about 9/11, that famous photo. So, he was there, in perfect position. I looked him up, he must have intelligence connections, he's always in the right place at the right time.

Gideon: "True. Whether they were in on the script, I would suspect not, but with enough trained photographers in place, one would expect some excellent photos to be captured, and they were."

Bill: The Trump injury makes no sense, either. Getting grazed like that, you'd expect more blood. It just stopped bleeding right away. The photos don't show clear damage, but they seem to show possibly some holes in his ear, it's hard to tell. His doctor and Trump himself even said the bullet went "through" his ear. Could that be faked?

Gideon: "All of it could easily be faked to appear utterly real. The technology exists to fake the entire event convincingly. I do not know for sure. I simply refer to some of the clues that tell us what really happened. They are enough to know the official version of events cannot be trusted."

Bill: Is it possible Trump's ear was injured but not by a bullet? Just to make all this appear real?

Gideon: "It is entirely possible. They could simulate a real injury of some kind without firing a shot at him and trying to graze him, which would be extremely risky."

Bill: Did a real person die?

Gideon: "I do not know. If the cabal needed to kill a person to make a staged event appear real, they would not hesitate to do so."

Bill: What about the photo of the shooter? It doesn't even look like the Crooks kid, it looks like this other guy, Maxwell Yearick.

Gideon: "It appears to be Yearick, correct, who I believe is in his late 30s, has ANTIFA and Ukraine connections, likely a better-trained shot, as well. It is possible he fired shots into the crowd and was then dispatched."

Bill: I just don't know what to believe. Was Crooks even there?

Gideon: "There, possibly, but did not fire a shot. Removed, taken to a black site, eliminated. He was there so enough people saw him. I believe he was filmed walking around, as well. Yearick wore the same clothes as he did that day."

Bill: I mean, he's just a pasty, that's obvious. I just wonder if there was another, real shooter, like Yearick. But then you're saying it was hoax to begin with.

Gideon: "It is possible real bullets were fired that injured and killed. My sources say Trump was not harmed at all, and stagecraft was in play."

Bill: I understand. What about how the Secret Service made obvious fools of themselves? I mean, this stand-down was so obvious it's almost like they want people to think it was intentional.

Gideon: "They do. As I said, they are leading people down the rabbit hole. That should tell you, that rabbit hole leads nowhere near the truth."

Bill: Well, it seems like it's all there to make Trump supporters believe the so-called "Deep State" wants Trump dead.

Gideon: "That is precisely what the cabal wants them to believe. It is important to note, if the Deep State wanted Trump dead, he would be dead. If the Biden Administration somehow coordinated with the Secret Service a complex plot to assassinate Trump using multiple shooters, Trump would be dead.

You do not perform an operation of that level and leave your target alive. They have the skill and technology to ensure the target is eliminated. The fact Trump was not whilst this being clearly an inside job, or made to look that way, and not a lone nut, tells us it was no accident Trump survived."

Bill: That's an incredible point. If this was really a lone nut, I could believe Trump might have miraculously survived, by happenstance or luck. I could believe that. But clearly, it wasn't a lone nut, the whole thing looks coordinated at the highest levels, for the Secret Service to stand-down and let the shots be fired! That means it was a big operation. So, if it was a big operation, there's no way they would leave it to chance or fail to hit the target. They would have a pasty, which they probably did, and a professional sniper to get the job done.

Gideon: "A professional would not miss the shot, one that was relatively easy. That is why we must consider other possibilities."

Bill: I'll get back to some of this, but before I forget, you told me there is a command and control center the cabal uses to conduct all of these events, from the very top. Where is that located?

Gideon: "In Switzerland."

Bill: So, for example, do the people on the ground, in the Secret Service, know what's going on?

Gideon: "Not necessarily, as it is compartmentalized, they are taking orders, or they have agendas or beliefs the cabal uses to steer them in the direction the cabal wants. In some cases, some of them are seeking Sovereign status in Obsidian and they will do anything asked of them. Most operators have handlers, who have handlers, and once you move up the food chain within the cabal, you reach a point where the operators or agents are fully aware of the agenda."

Bill: I'm getting it now. What about this faction, between Soros and the Democrats on one side, and then you have the right-wing Jewish interests on the other side, controlling the Republicans? Do they all know what's going on?

Gideon: "No, not all. Many of them are simply pawns in the grander scheme. Many are motivated by a mixture of ideology and money. The cabal controls them, but some of them do not realize they are being controlled. Some truly believe they are at the top of the pyramid, so the speak. They are easy to control this way. Most are also well-aware of Obsidian, so they are motivated by that."

Bill: What is the end goal here?

Gideon: "To give Trump supporters a narrative in which they believe Trump is somehow divinely inspired, protected and sent by God in some way. The assassination attempt achieved that, as he was seemingly able to cheat death, and many people now believe divine, angelic intervention took place to save his life. They believe God is protecting him."

Bill: Did God intervene to save him?

Gideon: "No, I do not believe that."

Bill: Why do they want Trump supporters believing these things?

Gideon: "It hardens and solidifies their support and even love for Trump. They are more passionate than ever, more believing in him than ever, more willing to follow him."

Bill: What about on the Left, the Democrats, what are they doing there? With Kamala Harris? Does the cabal want her to win, over Trump?

Gideon: "My sources say the election is gearing up to be one that will be contested, even suspended. It does not matter who wins, of course. But my sources believe Trump may win, because they are preparing for war. Under his leadership, his followers may be more willing to follow him into a war in the Middle East."

Bill: That reminds me, how JD Vance said at the RNC, the first thing he said, was we should bomb Iran. I thought that was just nuts, out of left field.

Gideon: "They also tried to blame Iran for the assassination attempt, or trying to plot one. Such a claim is suspicious and specious, at best, but points to what they are trying to do, they are trying to prepare people for something."

Bill: Well, they're planting the seed. I'm taking it Iran will be blamed for something at some point.

Gideon: "I expect that."

Bill: What about how Trump picked JD Vance? He's proving to be a liability. He's all over the map, in terms of his political views. All over the place. Why him?

Gideon: "He is a cabal asset. In particular, he is a controlled asset close to Peter Thiel. Vance could assume the Presidency at some point, if Trump dies or is assassinated, and Vance is a direct line to many high-level cabal players who want someone in place who will further the transhumanist agenda, which he will."

Bill: Vance, to me, he's just an obvious plant. I thought it was weird how Don Jr., Tucker Carlson, and I think even Elon Musk, they pushed him to be VP, they pushed Trump to pick him. Is that right?

Gideon: "Yes. A lot of forces rallied to ensure Trump picked Vance. Vance may need to step into the position of power when Obsidian is online. I expect he will. Vance will also lie and change his opinion on anything, as well, so he is useful to them. Vance has flip-flopped on countless issues, he has no moral backbone. Similar to Trump, in fact."

Bill: Vance is in place now, so the agenda moves forward. What about if Kamala Harris wins?

Gideon: "Harris may not end up the nominee. The script is still playing out."

Bill: Ok, I want to go back to Trump's ear injury. It was odd. Not a lot of evidence he was hit by anything, and the whole thing could easily be staged. Now there's finally some pictures of his ear and it looks fine, there's no evidence of injury.

Gideon: "One would assume we would have had official medical reports, photos, something along those lines, but his ear was carefully hidden. Such is highly irregular."

Bill: Well, some people say the ear heals quickly, but I don't know about that.

Gideon: "It does, generally, but this was purportedly a fairly significant wound on a 78 year-old man. There would be some evidence of cartilage missing."

Bill: You told me this is a ritual, so we're splitting hairs here. The cabal wants all of this to happen this way, right? They might even want people confused about his ear, on purpose, because it's a ritual.

Gideon: "Yes. Allow me to explain the problem here. There is no video from behind the stage showing the bullet impact Trump's ear. You would expect out of all of those people sitting behind him, there would be cell footage. There is none.

You may recall after the assassination attempt, in just the next day, Trump was out casually golfing but there was never any view of his right ear, never a photo or video showed it, only his left side. There may have been a bandage in place, but it was never seen.

Then, he got off his plane in Milwaukee the next day, and all cameras will oriented off to the side, as was the crowd, and only his left side was ever visible to anyone. Not once was his right ear or right side shown by any photograph or camera.

You must realize, we were shown these things for a reason. The cabal is leaving small clues, fingerprints, in all they are doing. There are signs. The fact his right side is not seen hardly at all the day of the shooting or days after is no accident.

The shooting took place on Julius Caesar's birthday. There was already predictive programming in place, which the Internet has already uncovered. There was a psychic who predicted Trump's ear injury about six months ago, and that video had gone viral. That psychic appears to be be a fraud to me, someone who posts countless predictions that do not come true. I suspect they were given that information preemptively, so that it later could solidify the belief in Trump's assassination attempt. The cabal plans these things carefully.

There is also a religious implication involved, with having one's right ear damaged or harmed. This is a Jewish belief. It means one is recommitting themselves as a slave to the Jews. In other words, if one is a slave, one would harm or damage their right ear to indicate they intend to continue being a slave to a Jew or the Jews. So, this is unique esoteric information we must keep in mind, because Trump's right ear was, supposedly, damaged. If not, symbolically."

Bill: Trump just keeps laying it on thick in defending the Jews. So, I could see how he's re-committed himself to being their slave.

Gideon: "He is utterly committed to them and Israel. I also believe there is a long-term plan in place, whereby Trump's first term was meant to be free from wars, while his second will be war-like. This is so people are more accepting of the future, planned wars under his command because in his first term they grew to trust him in that respect."

Bill: Ok, I might circle back to some of this, but right now I'll move on to some other subjects. We covered a lot there. There's a lot of other things going on. You told me another pandemic is being planned for 2025, is that right?

Gideon: "Yes, and unfortunately, all of my information indicates it will be a real pandemic, unlike Covid 19. It will be a real pathogen, likely a bacteria of some kind, one that is highly contagious, and it will affect the lungs. It will cause pneumonia. Those who took the vaccine will be heavily impacted, but so will everyone. This is the great trick the cabal has been planning."

Bill: What do you mean?

Gideon: "The cabal knows Covid 19 was fake, and they know many people now believe it was fake, staged, overstated, inflated, or did not even exist at all. In truth, it did not even exist whatsoever. But now they will release a real pathogen, which will put those skeptical of Covid 19 in an interesting position."

Bill: Oh, I see, so a lot of people will deny the next pandemic? They'll think it's fake, of course. I'd probably think it was going to be fake, too!

Gideon: "Yes, but it will not be. It will be a serious disease, a bacterial infection of some kind, that will spread quickly. It has already partly been tested this Winter in Australia, by the way."

Bill: Really?

Gideon: "Yes. Many people are sick there, but they did not use the main strain, only a test strain. It worked. Contrary to usual protocol, doctors and the news there have no explanation for it, and they are barely even talking about it, but the respiratory illness has been widespread."

Bill: That's incredible. How will this tie into the activation, with Starlink?

Gideon: "It will be a cover for it. When the activation occurs, and the nano dust is activated by Starlink, there will be countless deaths. Without a pandemic playing out at the same time, people would wonder what is going on. The pandemic will serve as a cover."

Bill: It will also be killing people, too?

Gideon: "A number of the vaccinated, yes."

Bill: We can expect lockdowns and the usual nonsense, like with Covid?

Gideon: "Yes, but even more intense. Since it will be real, people will begin to see it as real, and they will comply and be fearful. The anti-Covid people will believe it is fake at first, and lose credibility, once it is discovered it is real, as well."

Bill: How deadly will this pandemic be?

Gideon: "Enough to be concerned, but if you are unvaccinated and healthy, it will be like a bad flu. Your body can fight it.

However, the activation is a far, far greater concern, because of the nano dust already in our bodies. It will not matter if we are unvaccinated, once activation occurs with Starlink, many will be at risk of heart failure, immediate heart failure. Even so, if you survive activation, far, far worse consequences than death await you. We are talking about consequences involving the soul itself. This is why the antidote is key."

Bill: I get it. I feel like it all lines up with Deagel's predictions for 2025, the huge population loss. Huge loss. We're talking about hundreds of millions dying, probably billions worldwide. This all lines up. It's related, right?

Gideon: "It is. 2025 is the year the cabal has set for everything to happen. Obsidian, the activation, the next pandemic, the mass deaths, the transition to a new world order. There will also be war. You will see things begin to come undone by December, then it accelerates. They need all of this to happen so that the year 2030 delivers what they want."

Bill: We talked about this privately a lot, how AI scripting all this. How does that work?

Gideon: "It is extremely fluid. The AI actually interfaces with entities on the other side, and from there, they are giving the AI some direction on what to do, how to stage things. Everything right now is designed to put people on one side or another, either the Right or Left. Pit people against each other. We even see in JD Vance his highly charged positions are creating emotional triggers in people, particularly on the Left. This will simply intensify their reaction to the election outcome, if they lose, which we expect they will."

Bill: I can see a lot of civil unreset coming, whoever loses the election.

Gideon: "Indeed. And AI is directing it, looking for the ideal outcome. Trump winning is probably the outcome right now."

Bill: It's mind-blowing. I feel like it's obvious Tucker Carlson is a gatekeeper, too, but people worship this guy. I see that and I think we have no chance, no hope, because here's a guy people trust and he's obviously a cabalist.

Gideon: "They have their people in place everywhere, Bill, and yes, people put blind faith in them. In Trump, Elon Musk, Tucker."

Bill: I haven't even gotten to the financial aspect of this. Their plans for a CBDC, for Obsidian, for USDR. That's a huge subject in and of itself, and it really pertains to enslavement, ultimately, how we'll be enslaved by money. Now Trump comes out with full-throated endorsement of Bitcoin, which I thought was interesting.

Gideon: "The cabal wants the world enslaved by money, and to do that efficiently, they need a one world type of digital currency. That is coming soon. I would refer everyone to our previous Intel Drops that go into detail in this area. We do have some new information, but largely what we have reported remains the plan ahead."

Bill: You've told me the whistle-blowers are under a lot of stress right now. What's a status update on them? What are they saying to you and what are they seeing?

Gideon: "They have expressed to me the emotional strain of working at the fusion center. They are treated and paid-well, and the working environment is similar to what you would expect of well-paid employees of top tech companies. That is not the issue. It is the emotional strain of working on a software program that will enslave people. They have told me they want to quit, but they know they cannot."

Bill: What if they quit, or made up an excuse to quit? Can they?

Gideon: "They have explored that, but the cabal would investigate it. They would need a note and examination from a doctor, some kind of medical reason, and that would be investigated. They do not want to risk that."

Bill: You told me they're paid well, they will get the antidote, they will have Sovereign status, they want all that, right?

Gideon: "They do. But they are looking at any other way to sabotage the system. Unfortunately, for them, there is little they can do."

Bill: They're good programmers, I mean, they're called white hat hackers, they know how to get into the guts of Obsidian and they could do some damage to it, right?

Gideon: "Yes, but the software has countless fail-safes in place, some of which they are tasked with creating in the first place, to protect the software. Even if they were to install some kind of virus or malware, they said it would be eventually contained. They said best-case, they could delay Obsidian by about one month by sabotaging it, and risk their lives in doing so."

Bill: That's not worth it, then.

Gideon: "No, not really, but it is still on the table, for them to do that. They are considering it, but it would only lead to a delay."

Bill: Ok, I have some notes here, I was reminded how the number '666' is showing up for everyone. You asked them about this, what did they say?

Gideon: "It is AI-controlled, and yes, it is appearing everywhere. If you see it, it is probably placed there by AI."

Bill: That's chilling. I hate seeing it, and I do see it enough it's noticeable. I feel the Mark of the Beast is coming here, it's involved with the nano dust and Obsidian. I wanted to ask you if the cabal is trying to fulfill Biblical prophecy, or if they really believe the Bible in this respect?

Gideon: "They do. They also believe they are fulfilling prophecy. They simply reject the idea of Christ's return or that they will lose, in the end. They believe they have already won."

Bill: I think they'll lose, but my worry is, we're going to lose a lot of souls along the way, we're going to lose them to the cabal, to Satan.

Gideon: "I share that concern."

Bill: What about our team, how are we doing?

Gideon: "We are still being monitored and we are under threat. I have twenty security concerns I deal with on a weekly basis, some out of my control. I can only simply pray we will slip through the cracks and the cabal does not find out who our team members are."

Bill: If they put the full force of AI and all of their resources together to find out, could they?

Gideon: "Most likely, yes. But, I have been told they will not do that. There is greater reward for them, in their view, in seeing us as Sovereigns and seeing us acquiesce to the comforts of being Sovereign."

Bill: Well, you've talked about that a lot. It's like the cabal is just going to wait until Obsidian comes online and see if we do anything, and you think they think we won't do anything.

Gideon: "They believe we will not fight back or risk much, that is correct. We will be in a very good position, the best position, over everyone else. They do not think we will give that up. We will be safe and protected. Human nature is such we will simply not give that up."

Bill: I know that's nonsense. I know our team. They're good people. I think they really want to fight, too.

Gideon: "I believe that, too. I am far more concerned about a member of ours betraying us or being influenced by an agent, than the outcome the cabal wants. We have very good evidence agents are working to 'turn' our members, if they can find them. This already happened, but thankfully the damage done was minimal."

Bill: Another thing we talked about is money. How the cabal uses money to control people is insane, the extent it really controls everyone. It's the root of all evil, and with Obsidian, we'll be more controlled than ever before by it. That scares me.

Gideon: "It is of grave concern to myself and my colleagues, yes."

Bill: Beyond that, people are just strapped for cash, I mean, desperate. People are just running out of money. The economy is like a sinking ship with holes filled with paper, it's not going to hold much longer. The whole thing is going to crash sooner or later.

Gideon: "It is, and it will. They are even signalling that to prepare people for the end."

Bill: I'm scared to death about it, personally. My funds are tight, I know a lot of people's are, but we also know, fiat is done for. Fiat will be wiped out, anyway. There's not much to hold on to. You need a farm, a homestead, you need to be off-grid but fully self-contained. Even then, you probably didn't escape the nano dust. Do you think many off-grid people avoided it?

Gideon: "No, unless they were fully self-sufficient. That would mean sourcing all of their food from their own land. Very few people do that. Very few."

Bill: Ok, if we survive activation, and you said the unvaccinated will mostly survive it, then what happens to us, if we don't have the antidote?

Gideon: "Gradual changes. I was told a person will know the nano dust is activated when their dreams change. They will be visited by entities and spoken to. Their dreams will no longer feel like dreams, but something else. That is because the nano dust will allow entities to speak to them during the sleep state. They will have no control or way to stop it. It will be similar to sleep paralysis, except they will be surrounded by entities who will speak to them. It may even mirror what those who use DMT experience, except in a sleep state."

Bill: That's horrifying.

Gideon: "It is just one aspect. There will be other changes. Another change I was told of is that people will no longer feel love for their loved ones. Some may even harm their own children. I disagreed this was possible, but one of my sources said this will happen. I do not want to even contemplate that outcome."

Bill: It's just evil, beyond evil. I don't see it, either, how that could happen. But, I guess if the nano dust is activated, then something inside us starts changing. You said it's like willingly giving yourself over to Satan.

Gideon: "That is how the cabal treats it."

Bill: I think that's too much. It's too far. We didn't agree to this.

Gideon: "Well, Bill, in a way, maybe we did. We spoke of this before."

Bill: I know, I know, it's just something I don't like to think about. It feels like we have no control. What about the antidote, can we trust it?

Gideon: "All of my data and intel says the cabal wants the antidote and will take it. It is considered essential to them. So, they would not take it if it had no benefit, or if it did harm. They want the nano dust deactivated completely inside of themselves."

Bill: I actually don't think some of our readers even understand what we're talking about, because I still get emails from people who have no idea what's going on. So we're clear, can you outline what is going on with the nano dust, briefly?

Gideon: "The nano dust was placed in the worldwide food supply during the Covid 19 pandemic. During that time, billions of people consumed it. It is now within our bodies. It is not activated, however. Activation will occur at a specific time in the future, during an on-going event, like a pandemic, which will act as a cover story.

Activation is expected to utilize Starlink, as well as ground-based 5G towers and even cell towers. Activation is a process whereby the nano dust connects to a special grid and activates within the body. This is when changes will happen to all of us.

Activation is also expected to lead to heart failure in a few hundred million people, mostly those vaccinated. Without an antidote to remove the nano dust, everyone will be subject to these events. Only the cabal has the antidote, and only those with Sovereign status will be able to get it."

Bill: A lot of people tell me there's natural remedies to remove any kind of nano particles. Those don't work, do they?

Gideon: "No, and some remedies are actually being pushed by cabal gatekeepers, too."

Bill: Why can't it be removed?

Gideon: "The cabal designed the nano dust to completely infiltrate our bodies, our bones and even go inside of our cells. A natural remedy simply will not target the nano dust in a way to remove it. Only an advanced antidote can do that, which the cabal also developed. The antidote actually has special nano-instructions that tell the nano dust to vacate the body."

Bill: Thanks for explaining that. One thing I'm seeing is a lot of talk about how there's nano particles in us, mostly from the chemtrails and from the vaccines. Are these people finding out about the nano dust in a round about way?

Gideon: "Some are, and others are gatekeepers leading people astray."

Bill: I get asked this a lot, so I'll ask you again. We're not changing statuses in Obsidian for anyone anymore, are we?

Gideon: "No."

Bill: Can we in the future? Will the whistle blowers agree to that?

Gideon: "I have discussed that with them. At the most, we might accept a handful more people, but there would be a more stringent background check and other requirements. We cannot risk having agents or infiltrators join our team."

Bill: Ok, we still have time, we have some time, I feel like.

Gideon: "Not a lot of time."

Bill: What are your sources doing, are they leaving and getting to safe areas?

Gideon: "Most of them have plans to leave major cities by early 2025."

Bill: What about the cyberattacks? This Crowdstrike thing looked completely staged, was it?

Gideon: "It was a test-run. They will do it again and it will be worse."

Bill: It's all falling into place, things we've been talking about, but I'm just stunned by how people think Trump is going to save them. Trump is no threat to the cabal.

Gideon: "He is, in fact, one of their very own agents."

Bill: How much does Trump know, how much does he play along with things?

Gideon: "If you go back in time and learn about him, his dream as a young man was always to be a Hollywood actor, not a real estate mogul. Ponder that. Then consider his relationship with television and the WWE in the past, and with Vince McMahon."

Bill: Interesting. It's just hard to know. A lot of people say Trump's a good guy, generally he seems genuine, other times he doesn't. Do you know what I mean?

Gideon: "I do. But, a good conman knows how to sell certain things. He knows how to sell himself to a certain audience. He knows how to behave in front of the cameras to sell an image."

Bill: At the end of the day, he's always servicing Israel it seems like, always, always saying how loyal he is to Jews and Israel. That, to me, just wipes away anything good he says.

Gideon: "It does."

Bill: Some people say, or think, Trump's secretly fighting the Jews and Israel. I don't see it. I don't see a single thing he's done to resist them.

Gideon: "He has not done a single thing. All that could be argued is that his first term did not involve major wars. But, that does not mean his second term will not. A lot of former Presidents say they are anti-war, then they get themselves involved in war later on. The script will play out as the cabal intends and desires."

Bill: I'm sorry to do this, but I'm exhausted and I need a break. I just got an email that made me feel physically ill, while we were talking I checked on it.

Gideon: "Of course, Bill."

Bill: [Comments removed for privacy].

Gideon: "My prayers are with you. You need to focus on that. Family should come first. We will reconvene soon."

Bill: Thank you, I'll sign off, and we'll talk again soon. God bless.

Gideon: "You as well. Always in Christ. Goodnight."
